Yan Kielmann from Highland Springs asked for clarification on new wells that are being planned that are outside the adjudicated area. He asked if the well owners had to pay for the water that they pump and, if the area of adjudication changes, would they then have to pay for water pumped.

Legal Counsel McCullough explained how the Watermaster has legal authority over the basin and that a well outside of the adjudication boundaries would not be subject to charges. Should the adjudicated area expand through a court order, formal notification is required and then their overlyer rights would be taken into consideration.
V. Consent Calendar

a. Meeting Minutes
   i. Approval of Meeting Minutes for February 4, 2015

   Member Zoba motioned to approve consent calendar. The motion was seconded by Member Vela Fraser and passed 5-0.

VI. Reports

   Engineer Blandon looked to the Committee for guidance on two issues. The first was a question of who would make the initial approach to properties were private wells would need to be accessed in order to install the water level recording devices. After discussion, the consensus was for ALDA Engineering to make the initial approach, seeking the properties’ respective agencies if needed, with legal questions being forwarded to legal counsel. There is some funding to accommodate the engineering firm, but should the fees exceed the funding, the matter will be brought back to the Committee for review.

   The second question was to ask for direction over a discrepancy discovered with the production levels reported on 3 wells with Oak Valley Partners. There was consistent annual reporting on the production at the wells, but a brief discussion with the property owner revealed that only one well had limited use as nothing had been cultivated at the ranch for the last 15 years. ALDA Engineering will revise production tables in the 2014 annual report. The suggestions for creating an accumulated report that shows the most up to date production information and creating a Summary of changes report that lists all corrections over time will be implemented.

b. Report from Legal Counsel - Keith McCullough, Alvarado Smith

   Legal Counsel McCullough notified the Committee that the access agreements had been provided for review and that they were looking at the terminology of the judgement in regards to policies on return flow credits of supplemental water. No policies have been prepared yet.

VII. Discussion Items

   Recommendation: That the members of the Watermaster Committee adopt Resolution No. 2015-01 as presented.

   Member Zoba motioned for the adoption of Resolution 2015-01 as presented. The motion was seconded by Member Fraser and passed 5-0.

   Public Comment:

   Judy Bingham questioned if there would be any regulation to uphold the safe yield since three times as much is being used. If there were any regulations, she asked for an explanation on what could be done. The Committee will take her query under advisement and respond at a future meeting.

Recommendation: No recommendation.

Engineer Blandon reported the installation equipment took longer than expected to be delivered and would be installed by mid-April. A report on the water levels recorded will be made available by the next meeting.

Engineer Harder added that they have prepared a ground level data monitoring and data management plan to codify the method of data collection. Part of the management plan includes a report on quality assurance, quality control, and how data will be stored securely and made readily available.

c. Correction of the Supplemental Water Recharge Allocation for Calendar Year 2013 [Memorandum No. 15-09, Page 13 of 15]

Recommendation: For informational purposes only.

Engineer Blandon explained the adjustment on the report as it annual report had changed from a fiscal year basis to a calendar basis. In 2013, the annual report gave appropriators full credit for the 16,000 AF of control overdraft that was part of the judgement but they should have been given credit for half. A schedule was provided to assist with the deduction from the running totals.
